The "settlement" is a joke.

Microsoft was found guilty of abusing it's monopoly power and now you are allowing them to continue their abuses and even entrench themselves more with this wholly inadequate method of "punishment."

They outright LIED to and tried to deceive a federal judge in the courtroom, to say nothing about what they do daily to the American public and corporations who, for whatever misguided reasons use their products and services.

Talk about contempt - repeated, deliberate, organized, conspiratorial and BLATANT contempt.

Shame on you!

Please scrap this "settlement," do some good and actually punish them, to the FULLEST extent of the law.

Thank you.

E. Eberle
